Reservations and Equal Opportunity Statement

The provisions of this bulletin do not constitute an offer for a contract between the College and the student, that may be accepted by the student through registration and enrollment in the College. The College reserves the right to change any provision or requirement, including fees, at any time, with or without notice. The College also reserves the right to require a student to withdraw from the College for cause at any time.

FAILURE to read this bulletin does not excuse students from the requirements and regulations.

Centenary College is an equal opportunity educational institution. Centenary College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, religion, gender, age, marital status, disability, or sexual orientation, in the administration of its educational policies, recruitment or admission of students, scholarship, grant or loan programs, athletic or other College-administered programs, employment procedures, training programs, promotion policies or other related personnel practices. The College's designated coordinator for compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, and the Internal Revenue Service is Mr. Fred Scott. The College follows the guidelines for records established by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (1974).
