NBLSA ANNUAL PRE-LAW SYMPOSIUM
SATURDAY, MARCH 16, 2019 | LITTLE ROCK, AR

Join the NBLSA Pre-Law Student Division on Saturday, March 16, 2019, at the Little Rock Marriott in Arkansas, as we host our National Convention Pre-Law Symposium!

During the Symposium you will be able to participate in a day full of workshop/seminars vested with the tools and resources you need to be able to go into law school/consider a legal career equipped with knowledge many aren’t able to get before-hand. Our Symposium will include informative panels, workshops where you can hear first-hand from admissions counselors, as well as highlight what you can do to set yourself up so that you can enter law school with a competitive edge amongst your other counterparts. Also included will be LSAT prep workshops, seminars around financing a legal education, as well as networking opportunities with the nation’s leading organizations that are here to support you as you consider a legal education.

FEATURED PANELS, BREAKOUT SESSIONS, AND EVENTS

The Law School Classroom Experience
Taught by Anastasia M. Boles, Esq.
Assistant Professor of Law,
University of Arkansas at Little Rock, William H. Bowen School of Law

The Road to 180: Approaching and Conquering the LSAT
The LSAT is a major step in the law school admissions process that many find daunting. No worries! Professionals from NBLSA’s programming partners Blueprint LSAT Preparation and the Law School Admission Council (LSAC) will give tips and insight into the LSAT and how to begin preparing for it. You can hear one-on-one from LSAT prep administrators as well as LSAT writers during this session.

Keynote Address:
Miguel Willis, Presidential Innovation Fellow,
Law School Admission Council (LSAC)

Special Guest Speakers
- Bernetta Hayes, Director of Pre-Law Program Operations,
  Council on Legal Education Opportunity, Inc. (CLEO)
- Matthew Kerns, Assistant Dean of Admissions, University of Arkansas at Little Rock, William H. Bowen School of Law
- Jasmin Robinson, Esq., Jas Talks Law

NBLSA Partnerships
- AccessLex
- Blueprint LSAT Preparation
- Jas Talks Law
- Law School Admission Council (LSAC)

LAW SCHOOL TOUR
When: Friday, March 15th | 1:00 PM
Where: University of Arkansas at Little Rock, William H. Bowen School of Law, 1201 McMath Avenue, Little Rock, Arkansas 72202

Please R.S.V.P. by emailing: prelaw@nblsa.org

For questions, contact Kekelly Ketemepi, National Pre-Law Director at Prelaw@nblsa.org.