

Supportive & Protective Measures

The College offers a range of resources to students and employees impacted by sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. These actions can be enacted quickly, even before (or without) a complaint being filed and will be confidential to the extent allowable under law and policy. Measures can include no contact orders, changes to on-campus housing or work locations, changes to class or activity schedules, and transportation assistance. College students and employees can contact the Title IX office at 318.869.5023 or title-ix@centenary.edu.

Victim's Rights

Victims have multiple options regarding the involvement of law enforcement and campus authorities including the option to notify law enforcement authorities, including on-campus and local police; be assisted by campus authorities in notifying law enforcement; or decline to notify such authorities.

Whether or not a victim chooses to involve law enforcement or a campus disciplinary authority, the College provides victims with information on existing counseling, health, mental health, survivor advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and other support and resources. Information is available through the Title IX Office at 318.869.5023 or title-ix@centenary.edu or through the Student Conduct Office at 318.869.5280.

Victims of a crime in Louisiana have the right to be treated with fairness, respect, and dignity, and to be free from intimidation, harassment, or abuse through the criminal process. All state, parish, and municipal justice agencies and courts are required to perform certain duties to ensure that victims receive their rights. To request a copy of the full text of Louisiana victims' rights laws, contact the Louisiana Attorney General at 877.297.0995, email constituentservices@ag.louisiana.gov, or go to ag.state.la.us/criminal.

Sexual Misconduct Policy

The Sexual Misconduct Policy can be found at centenary.edu/titleix under the Sexual Misconduct Policy link. Information about Centenary's sexual harassment and sexual assault policies and procedures that do not fall under Title IX can be found in the Student Handbook, Faculty Handbook, and the Personnel Policy Manual.

Choosing Whether & Where To Report

If you have experienced DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, STALKING OR OTHER VIOLENT CRIME, please be aware that it is your choice whether to make a report to campus police, local police, student conduct, human resources, the Title IX coordinator, or not to make a report.

Some individuals on campus are designated Campus Security Authorities and are required to forward any reports of domestic or dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to the reporting structure of the college. They should inform you of this prior to speaking with you about your experience.

To speak confidentially about your experience or to make a confidential report, we encourage you contact Counseling Services or the Chaplain's office.

SEEK MEDICAL CARE

Whether you choose to make a report or not, seek medical care. You have the right to receive medical care at any Emergency Department that you choose. Information on medical forensic exams is available at rainn.org/articles/rape-kit.

PRESERVING EVIDENCE

Whether you choose to immediately report or not, it is important to preserve any evidence in the event that you change your mind at a later date. Preserving evidence can aid in an investigation and prosecution and may also be helpful in obtaining a temporary protection order.

- Refrain from washing, bathing, showering, or douching if possible.
- Refrain from washing clothes or other items worn/used during the incident.
- Do not delete text messages or emails.

To suggest revisions, please email dps@centenary.edu
